Bourbon Circuit Court.

When Circuit Court convened Tuesday morning the criminal docket was called. Some delay was experienced as a result of the absence of a number of witnesses and several cases were postponed until later in the term.

The first case tried was that of the Commonwealth vs. Dan Anderson, accused of abusing Maria McGowan, aged ten years. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, the penalty being ten years to twenty years in the penitentiary.

The next case tried was that of Charles B. Thomas, a policeman of Paris, on the charge of assault and battery upon William Wright in August, 1910. After the case was ready for presentation to the jury it was dismissed until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, when after deliberating about two hours, returned a verdict of guilty and Thomas was assessed a fine of $25.

Wednesday morning the case of the Commonwealth against Dave January, charged with detaining a woman against her will with the intent of having carnal knowledge of her. The principal witness against January was Mrs. Virgie Gray against whom the alleged offense was committed while at her home near Cane Ridge on the fifth of last December.

After deliberating five hours the jury reported to the court that they were unable to reach a verdict they were discharged by Judge Sandidge. The report of the jury showed eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

Several minor cases were tried by juries in the courtroom Wednesday, and fines assessed in each case. In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Brent Hicks, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Beginning Wednesday night Judge Sandidge began holding night sessions in order to expedite the routine business in court.

Yesterday the criminal docket was resumed when court convened and the case of the Commonwealth against Virgil Allen, colored, charged with shooting with intent to kill, continued from the day previous, was completed, the jury returning a verdict of guilty and he was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

The case of the Commonwealth against Morris Hutsell under indictment for cutting with intent to kill resulted in a fine of $50 being assessed against the defendant.

Will Kimbrough, colored, pled guilty to an indictment charging forgery and was sentenced to from two to ten years in the penitentiary. James Ashbrook, white, was found guilty of striking with intent to kill and fined $50.

The trial of Pres. Lamm, charged with cutting with intent to kill was entered into at the afternoon session and after the evidence was heard the jury retired and after deliberating for two hours reported to the court they were unable to reach a verdict. Judge Sandidge did not discharge the jury and it will resume its deliberations this morning. The jury to try the case of the Commonwealth against Dan Menifee, under indictment for carrying concealed weapons was out when court adjourned for the afternoon.

Before the adjournment was taken Judge Samuel Holmes and Attorney Conley, of Carlisle, made arguments against the motion of the Commonwealth to forfeit the bond of Cleveland Stafford, convicted at the June term of court for malicious cutting with intent to kill, and Attorney Conley was present to show cause why the bond should not be forfeited. Judge Sandidge had not rendered a decision in the case when the report was closed.

The following is a list of cases assigned for trial to date during the term:

Fifth day, Friday, March 17—R. F. Rash, vs. C. W. Turner; Yerkes & Kenney vs. E. K. Thomas; W. O. Butler vs. Blue Grass Traction Company; Mitchell-Finch vs. A. D. Frazier, etc.; E. F. Rash vs. M. R. Jacoby.

Sell Two Inter-State Cars.

The Bourbon Garage & Supply Co. on Saturday sold to Mr. Milt Abner a handsome automobile and this week one to Mr. R. L. Penn. Both machines were five-passenger touring cars of the Inter-State type. The above firm are doing some tall hustling this season and have a number of customers on the string they expect to land in the next few days. What's the use going out of town when you can buy such cars as the Inter-State and E. M. F. from home people.

Paynter Makes Formal Announcement.

United States Senator Thomas H. Paynter, of Greenup, whose term will expire March 4, 1913, has made the announcement of his candidacy to succeed himself. Senator Paynter has refused to discuss the political situation further than to say that he would make the race to succeed himself. It could not be learned whether or not he was satisfied with the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee in including the matter of a senatorial endorsement of the primary.

Henry R. Prewitt, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee does not know just what action likely would be taken by the committee to draft a platform on which the party nominees to be selected in the primary can run. He says he had not discussed the matter with any member of the committee nor any of the party leaders since the last meeting of the committee more than a week ago. Mr. Prewitt is of the opinion that a platform should be drafted on which the successful candidates could go before the people, and that as the nominees are to be selected in a primary he thought it was up to the Executive Committee to provide some manner of making a platform and that he had not yet considered the question of calling the committee together for this purpose, but that some action likely would be taken by him within the near future.

Mr. Prewitt says he had heard nothing since the last meeting of the committee, from Henry R. Lawrence, chairman of the new sub-committee, and did not know just when the first meeting of that body would be held. It is likely, he said, that Chairman Lawrence will call a meeting of the sub-committee for some time about April 1, as there are a few matters pertaining to the primary to be looked after.

To Hold Primary May 27.

A primary election has been called for May 27 to nominate a Democratic candidate for Representative in Nicholas and Robertson counties. Judge L. S. Rogers has announced his withdrawal, leaving Editor Green Keller and Judge Foster Cox the only candidates.

Tiny Brides.

A dispatch from Frankfort says: "Tiny brides in short skirts and of the giggling variety are becoming fashionable and the rage in this city. Three misses under 16 were married Saturday to bridegrooms under 24. They are Lucy Ellen Hargan, aged 15, to Willie Kase, aged 23; Mamie Rodgers, aged 15, to Exie Harrod, aged 21, and Maggie D. Reynolds, aged 15, to W. H. Wright, aged 23. In all of these cases the fathers of the brides accompanied them to the Clerk's office to get the licenses."

The Old Wood Fire.

Among the "old things that have passed away" we may reckon the "fire on the hearth." But, in the days of our older people, the open fireplace was the main comfort of the home. After the evening chores were done, the father would bring in the great backlog coated with snow, often of ample girth than himself, and fully breast-high to him as he held it upright, canting it one way and another, walking it before him on its wedge-shaped end. He would perhaps stand it against the chimney while he took a breathing spell and planned his campaign; then the andirons were hauled forward on the hearth and the bed of half burnt brands and live coals raked open, the joy log was walked into the wide chimney, where a skillful turn would lay it over, hiss and sputtering with a cloud of steam, in its bed of hot embers. It seemed a thing alive, and its vehement sputtering and protesting made a dramatic movement in the family life. The stout shovel and tong, or perhaps a piece of firewood for a lever would force it against the chimney back; then a good-sized stick, called a "fire-stick," was laid in front and in the interspace smaller sticks were crossed, thrust and piled, and all quickly kindled by the bed of coals and brands. The flames went up the chimney throat with a roar, and the room was flooded with a glorious warmth and light, such as no other heating device could rival, or even approach. In very cold weather a fire was kept all night, some member of the family getting up once or twice to replenish it. In warmer weather, a good heap of coals were drawn together and covered with ashes at bed-time, or the backlog banked with ashes, and in the morning one had but to rake the embers out of the ashes and build the fire as before. In many families the fire-place served for cooking, and many a delicious meal has been served from the log-legged pots, spiders and baking kettles that were used on the bed of glowing coals, or drawn from the ashes themselves, where they had been baked beautifully.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Paris Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Paris readers.

Mrs. Margaret Nelson, 233 E. Main street, Lexington, Ky., says: "For ten years or more I was troubled by severe attacks of backache and it was almost impossible for me to do my housework. I tried a number of remedies, but did not receive relief until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply. By the time I had taken the contents of three boxes, my trouble had disappeared. That happened over three years ago and I am today in good health. I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends. In one case in particular Doan's Kidney Pills cured dropsy after doctors had given the patient up. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worth their weight in gold."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Holiday Changed.

"Arbor Day is one of the legal holidays in Kentucky and is specially observed by the rural schools. It formerly came in April, but the last legislature changed the date, and it now comes in October.

No Enthusiasm.

Everything points to a big tobacco crop this year, although there is but little enthusiasm manifested. Some of our farmers are still undecided, while others will plant a crop and trust to luck for a profitable market this fall.

Stallion Advertising.

In some of the Central Kentucky exchanges the owners of stallions are already setting forth the merits of their animals. There is no better medium in which to reach the farmers and breeders of this county than the columns of the News and the wise man will not wait until the breeder has made up his mind to the matter. We have also a full line of new cuts, type, etc., for printing cards in the highest style of art.

Prof. DeMoss Tenders His Resignation.

Prof. William F. DeMoss, of Lexington, who was retained in his position as principal of Johnson School by the Board of Education a year ago in the face of a concerted effort on the part of several women teachers to have him removed, has tendered his resignation to take effect in June. DeMoss says that he has decided to enter Chicago University for a full college year. As a result of their efforts to oust DeMoss several of the women teachers lost their positions.

After Many Years.

In 1893 B. Whitson, who lived in North Carolina was sentenced to be hung for murder. This was commuted to thirty years imprisonment in the penitentiary. He served two years when he escaped. He came at once to Kentucky and, under the name of Sam Jones, he went into the lumber business in Letcher county and amassed considerable property. He went to Lexington the past week on business where he was arrested and will be taken back to North Carolina. He says he killed his man over family troubles but for years has been living the life of a good citizen. He claims that an old friend that became angry with him recently had betrayed him to the officers.

Love for the Farm.

An agricultural educational rally will be held at Carlisle March 18 under the auspices of the Kentucky Educational Department and the Commissioner of Agriculture's office. On the program will be T. W. Vinson, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction; Miss Anna Hamilton, Dean of the Women at State University; T. J. Coats, State Rural School Supervisor; Dr. J. G. Crabbe, President of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School, and many of the county superintendents. The meeting will be the first gun fired by the educators of the state to induce the members of the next Legislature to pass a law to have agricultural taught in the public schools. The thought is to make the farm attractive to the children of the farmers, so that they will not desire to seek employment in the cities.

A Poor Weak Woman

Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. LAXATIVE SENT FREE TO TRY

It may be taken for granted that there is no family that does not sometime need a laxative. If you don't know of a good laxative, or the laxative you are using is losing its effect, we want to call your attention to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of families are using successfully.

We have scores of letters from mothers, and scores from prominent men saying they are using it personally and giving it to their families, men like Mr. C. K. Smith of the Traffic Clearing House, Pine Bluff, Ark., and Mr. George B. Turner, a lawyer of Harlan, Ky. The thousands of mothers who use it themselves and give it to their children would take too much space to mention.

The reason they prefer Syrup Pepsin is that it is a mild, gentle laxative—tonic that does not gripe—effective and yet so mild that babies can take it. Its tonic ingredients invigorate the body and strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that they again do their work naturally. If you have been a victim of salts, pills and strong cathartics you will discard them when you once use Syrup Pepsin.

You can buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of any druggist, but before doing so you may want to try it free. If so, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly forward a free sample bottle. Then, being convinced, do as others are doing and buy it in the regular way of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Base Ball Notes.

President J. W. Bacon, of the Paris Base Ball Club, is in receipt of three contracts from Manager Ed McKernan of men who he recently signed. They are Herbert P. Ashley, of Louisville, a left-handed pitcher and a good prospect; Earl Simon, catcher, a brother of the Paris backstop, and Walter Mayer, of Cincinnati, also a catcher. McKernan thinks Mayer the best prospect in the Blue Grass League. Several other clubs have been after him but he preferred to come to Paris. President Bacon has about closed a deal for the sale of John Scott to a team in the Southern Michigan League.

President Bacon is making an effort to close a deal with the Minneapolis team, champions of the American Association for a game here the latter part of April.

Twenty four uniforms for the use of the Bourbonites at home and abroad have arrived and one each of the road and home suits are now on display in the show window of G. S. Varden & Son. The new uniforms are of the very latest designs, low collars and short sleeves, and were furnished by the J. A. G. Spalding Company. The home suits are of a white material with the letter "P" in black set in a diamond of the same color on the sleeves and on the left of the shirt front, while the uniforms to be worn by the Paris team while on the road are of the same color as those of last year with "Paris" across the shirt front. The caps are black with the letter "P" in white on each and the stockings are of the same color with white bars.

"Pop" Barnett, the star initial sacker of the Blue Grass League, has signed his contract for the coming season which has been received by President Bacon. In a letter to the head of the Paris Club Barnett said he was in better condition than ever at this season of the year and will be ready when the bell calls the Bourbonites to the post.

President J. W. Bacon has received a contract from the Minneapolis Club of the American Association for exhibition games in Paris on April 30 and 31. The Minneapolis club, which was the winner of the pennant last year in the Association, includes such players as Rube Wadell, Nick Althrock and Hub Dawson, a former member of the Richmond club, and a Blue Grass League product.

Curt Williams, the southpaw who was with the Hustlers the latter part of last season, has sent in his signed contract. There are now about fifteen players' names signed to Winchester contracts, and Manager Coleman writes that he soon will secure the services of three other men, a pitcher, catcher and first baseman.

"Sudds" Baird, the third baseman of the Richmond club, last year, passed through Paris Tuesday enroute to Richmond to report for the early training. Baird looked to be in excellent condition physically and said he is anxious for the base ball season to begin.

Kentucky's Tobacco Crop.

A dispatch from Washington states that Kentucky, according to the report of the Department of Agriculture, produced in 1910 381,024,000 pounds of tobacco or 38.7 per cent of all the tobacco raised in the United States. This was the banner crop of the Kentucky growers, whose production in the last five years has increased as follows: 1906, 252,300,000 pounds; 1907, 240,378,000 pounds; 1908, 195,600,000 pounds; 1909, 350,800,000 pounds; 1910, 381,024,000 pounds.

Increase in Traffic.

The local freight and passenger departments of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is feeling the effects of the strike of the firemen on the Queen & Crescent route according to the statement of the officials here, in that there has been a substantial increase in the volume of freight and passenger traffic through and from this city since the strike was inaugurated. Since the first of March it is said business in each department has increased more than one-third.

"The Dollar Princess" at Lexington.

"The Dollar Princess," the beautiful Viennese musical comedy, comes to the Lexington Opera House Monday, March 20, for two performances, matinee and night. The company is under the management of Mr. Charles Frohman, and numbers nearly one hundred people with a magnificent scenic production, and with a special augmented orchestra. This musical comedy ran ten months at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York. The music of the "Dollar Princess" is almost worthy of a place in grand opera. The lyrics are extremely graceful and melodious, and "The Dollar Princess Waltz" is fast becoming recognized as a success, or to the famous "Merry Widow Waltz." "The Dollar Princess" is full of tunefulness, and each of its characters seems to be the funniest fellow you have ever met until the next one comes on the stage. Their humor is not of the slap stick sort, but is extremely merry and witty. The piece, through its music and dances and refined merriment, has a universal appeal. One of the prettiest choruses that have ever been seen in Lexington will be seen with this company. The gowns alone in the piece are said to have cost thirty-five thousand dollars, and it is quite the most extravagantly staged piece Mr. Frohman has ever sent out. Owing to the melodious score, special care has been taken by Mr. Frohman to secure girls with good voices.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE COMET.

A Lubin and Biograph picture will be the offering at the Comet this afternoon and evening. The Biograph, "A Child's Stratagem," is a beautiful picture. The title of the Lubin is "The Musical Ranch."

THE GRAND.

The two vaudeville acts at the Grand tonight and tomorrow night come highly recommended. Paul Gordon, comedy wire artist, is said to be a scream, while Willard & Mitchell, a clever singing and talking team, will fill the double part of the bill. Two new reels of pictures, "Under the Old Apple Tree" and "Two Sisters" will be presented.

You and Your Dealer.

Stand by your local merchants, patronize the stores in your own town. Don't be tempted by catch-penny bargains to send your money flying all over the country, keep it in circulation in your own neighborhood. When you see advertised something that you want, ask your dealer to get it for you or to write for samples. But always buy the goods themselves through your home store. By doing this you will benefit three parties.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Mr. Edward F. Smart and Miss Maude E. Kayse, both of Georgetown, were united in marriage at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, on Duncan avenue, Wednesday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mr. Herman T. Kayse, a brother of the bride and his wife.

—Dr. B. M. Shive united in marriage at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Edward Tappan, on Eighth street, Miss Fannie B. Tepp and Mr. James Dazell.

—The following marriage licenses were issued this week by County Clerk Paton: Mr. Newton Lindsley and Miss Rose L. Cramer; Benj. N. Shropshire and Miss Louise Huffman; Mr. Chas. Garrison and Miss Daisy D. Porter.

Private Mail Boxes Necessary.

Private mail boxes must be provided at all residences and places of business where mail is delivered by carrier or the delivery of the mail will be discontinued after June 30 under a law passed by the last Congress and which is effective in Paris as much as anywhere else. Many residents of this city have already placed suitable boxes at their homes or places of business for receiving the mail, but under the new law all will have to provide boxes. The bill was originally drawn to become effective December 31, 1910, but its passage was delayed and it was amended to June 30, 1911.

HOMES IN ATHENS

As a Rule They Are Clean, but Bare and Comfortless.

PEOPLE LIVE IN THE CAFES.

When They Do Get Into Their Houses Their Principal Occupation Is Looking Out of the Windows—The Marriage Customs of Greece.

Home life in Greece, particularly in Athens, is peculiar. It might almost be said that there is no such thing. In Mr. Duckett Ferriman's book on "Greece and the Greeks" the manners and customs of the picturesque Hellenes, which are little known to the average English reader, are described at length. Mr. Ferriman states that the Greeks do not know anything about the art of making a home.

"One may meet with exquisite cleanliness," he writes, "with beautifully embroidered bed linen scented with rosemary, but never with what we mean by coziness. The Greeks are far less in their houses than we are, and when they are at home they appear to spend most of their time in looking out of the window. They are not given to inviting their friends to their houses. It is not that they are niggardly, for they will gladly entertain you at a restaurant at far greater cost to themselves. But it does not enter into their ideas to ask you home to dinner, even after an acquaintance of many years.

"They do not ask each other, so it can hardly be expected that they should make an exception in the case of foreigners. The cafe is a second home to them. There they meet friends and gossip. That is one reason perhaps why they dislike country life.

"It offers no alternative to the home; there the hearth is the social center, while in town it is the cafe. In Athens those who do not own the house they dwell in seldom remain long in the same abode. Two or three years is quite a long tenure. Many people make a point of moving every year.

"The imposing facades of Athenian houses conceal, for the most part, a bare and comfortless interior, and a well kept garden is rare. A garden is not made in a year, and a person who changes his residence every twelve months does not want to be troubled with much furniture, nor is he particular as to its arrangement, seeing that it will be carted away in a few months.

"Home life has no resources for the Greeks, as it has for us. It affords them little occupation and no amusement. They like to eat and drink in crowds, where there is noise and movement. Their instincts are too gregarious to allow them to appreciate the domestic intimacy which we prize.

"The day chosen for marriage in Greece is usually Sunday, but the day of all days in the year is the Sunday preceding the Christmas feast. It is not fashionable now to be married in church. In Athens the ceremony takes place in the house of the bride's parents. A temporary altar is set up in the middle of the room.

"At the conclusion of the ceremony the priest and the couple join hands and walk three times round the altar, the guests pelting them with confetti. The most important part of the ceremony is the crowning of the bride and bridegroom with wreaths of orange blossom; hence a wedding is popularly called 'the crowning.'

"Love marriages are rare exceptions. The match is made by the parents and relatives rather than by the parties principally concerned. There are certain established usages which, though not legally binding, are not to be contravened with impunity.

"Then it is considered wrong for brothers to marry until their sisters have been wed. Again, girls must marry in order of seniority. It would not be right for a girl to be married while she had an elder sister who remained single. The men of a family are thus naturally anxious to see their sisters settled, and as a dowry is indispensable its provision is often a matter of serious anxiety and the fruit of great self denial on the part of the brothers if the parents are dead.

"There are cases in which brothers have remained unmarried for years and have devoted all their hard earned savings to the dowries of their sisters. Among the poorer classes emigration is resorted to, not infrequently solely with this object, and many a dowry comes to a Greek maiden from across the Atlantic."

To a Flanders 20 is Credited the Most Remarkable Endurance Feat of the Season of 1910.

A stock car left Quebec, Canada, June 6th, and after an uninterrupted journey of 4,128 miles, arrived at Mexico City, August 3rd.

One of the first of the 1911 models to reach the Pacific Coast, a four passenger "Suburban," won a unique distinction by the Longest Non-Stop Run in the Annals of Motordom.

The motor was started December 2nd, and was run continuously, not even stopping when the car was at rest taking on supplies. On December 28th the car passed the former record of 10,974.4, continuing to traverse the streets and roads of Los Angeles until it had placed the figures at a point out of reach of all competition for years to come.

Later, on December 30th, the car's record was 10,872 miles. The run was under the auspices of the Automobile Association of Southern California, and observer from which was always on the car, day and night.

Flanders Cars are among the cheapest to maintain, the actual running expenses at the present price of tires, being less than 3 per cent. per mile. For sale by

DEADLY MINE GASES.

Their Action Upon the Flame of the Safety Lamp.

The safety lamp, a heavy metal lantern shaped object with a circular globe of heavy plate glass, is the only light other than electricity that can be safely carried into a gaseous mine. The lamps are lit before they are taken into the mine and, in addition, are securely locked, that no accident or ignorant intention may expose the open flame to the gases of the mine. Over a small sooty yellow flame which gives a light less bright than that of an ordinary candle are two wire gauze cones fitting snugly inside the heavy globe, and it is through these cones that the flame draws the air which supports it. The presence of black damp, or carbon dioxide, can easily be detected, if not by its odor, by the action of the flame, which grows dim and, if the black damp exists in any quantity, is finally extinguished. White damp, the highly explosive gas which is most feared, has, on the other hand, a totally different effect. In the presence of this gas the flame of the safety lamp becomes pointed, and as the gas grows stronger the flame seems to separate from the wire gauze and an almost invisible blue cone forms beneath it. If the miner continues to advance into the white damp he will pass through a line in which there are nine parts of air to one part gas (the explosive mixture), and the lamp will instantly register this explosive condition by a sudden crackling inside the gauze and the extinguishing of the flame. Were it an open lamp the explosion ignited by the flame would sweep throughout the entire workings, carrying death and destruction before it, but by the construction of the safety lamp the explosion confines itself to the limited area within the gauze cones, and unless the lamp is moved suddenly and the flame is dragged through the gauze at the instant that the explosion occurs within the globe it will not extend beyond the gauze.—Atlantic.

SPHERICITY OF THE EARTH.

"Parallax" Bet Against It, and He Lost His Wager.

The straightest canal in the world is in England and runs from Erith, in Cambridgeshire, to Denvers Sluice, twenty-two miles away. It was here that years ago a decisive experiment was conducted to prove the sphericity of the earth. At that time, says "Highways and Byways in Cambridgeshire," a deluded gentleman, who called himself "Parallax," was obsessed with the notion that the globe was a flat disk and used to go lecturing with great vigor on the subject. After these lectures he invited questions, none of which was able to shake his belief. When asked, for example, "Why does the hull of a ship disappear below the horizon while the masts remain visible?" he would answer, "Because the lowest stratum of air is the densest and therefore soonest conceals objects seen through it." Finally he showed his whole hearted belief in his absurd views by laying a heavy wager that no one would disprove them. The stakes were deposited in the hands of judges, and the trial, under agreed conditions, took place upon the New river, as part of the canal is called. Three boats were moored three miles apart, each provided with a cross-tree of equal height. If the earth was spherical the central cross would appear above the other to an observer looking through a telescope leveled from the cross-tree of the boat at either end; if it was flat he would see both the other cross-trees as one. "Parallax" declared that he did see them so, but the judges unanimously decided against him, and the poor man lost his money.

We're All Actors.

Mme. Alexandria Viarda, the Polish tragedienne, once propounded the following: "It is a strange thing, but ask a man to mend a rip in his coat. 'No; he is not a tailor. 'Ask another to stop the faucet from leaking. 'No; he's not a plumber. 'Or another to do a bit of cabinet work. 'No; he is not a carpenter. 'But ask any one of the three or all of them to enact a little part in a play and each will smile in fatuous confidence and instantly acquiesce. 'But watch him act!'"

Saintliness Unpopular.

That state of mind which let us call the ignominy of the virtuous is not entirely confined to boys of nine years. I have seen grown men and women, being accused of saintliness, over whose faces passed an expression of mortification. They would accept with more complacency the tribute that they were getting to be devils in their old age.—Atlantic.

Lack of Tact.

"That man is about the most tactless person I have ever known." "I agree with you. He would have no more sense than to ask a barber to subscribe to a fund for the purpose of providing a monument for the inventor of the safety razor."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Pardon Granted Unnamed Convict.

Burbridge King was Wednesday granted a full and free pardon by Governor Willson for an offense committed twenty years ago, when he was but 17 years old. The pardon was made out to King, under which name he served in the penitentiary, but which is not his right name. Twenty years ago King was sent up from Bath county for theft and served in a construction camp on the Cumberland river for nearly a year and then escaped. Nothing more was heard of him until he filed an application for a pardon with the Governor.

Several months ago Governor Willson granted King a conditional pardon but he went to Frankfort Wednesday and asked for a full and free pardon, which the Governor granted. While his real name is not known, it is known that he is a railroad engineer, and one of the best citizens where he lives.

After making his escape from the construction camp twenty years ago King went to Illinois and later went to Mexico, where he now resides. His father lived in Pike county and a few years ago King came to visit him, but fearing that he would be round up and arrested, spent only a few days with his father.

NOTICE.

Jordan Richardson, who was convicted of selling liquor without a license on Sunday in the Bourbon County Court at its January term will ask the Governor for pardon and all who object will notify the Governor, and state in writing any objection. P. A. THOMPSON, Attorney for Jordan Richardson.

Told of Many Killings During Career.

General May, who is charged with having murdered Sherman Merido and his wife in Clay county last week, was arrested in Winchester and taken to Marcester where he will face the charge. May admitted killing Merido, but said the woman was killed by a negro who was shooting at him. He expressed regret at not getting to kill the negro, who escaped after he had shot him in the heel.

May told of killing Mart Smith in Knox county, two years ago, and John Lawson, in the same county last December. He also boasted of shooting the arm off of Life Lewis, in Clay county several years ago. The latter was a brother of Jailer Joe Lewis, of Manchester. Sherman Merido was also half-brother of the Jailer.

May said he expected to be killed in the Manchester jail but if harm came to him his six brothers would seek revenge.

Paris Defeats Lexington 19 to 12.

The Paris team was excellent on team work, their passes were accurate and they guarded well. The line-up was as follows: Lexington—Misses Nancy Innes and May Cornelson, guards; Florence Hughes, center; Eleanor Brogie and Gladys Van Meter, forwards.

Paris—Misses Ruth Chambers and Elsie Heller, guards; Freida Heller, center; Mary Hayden and Nell Rummans, forwards.
